Dr John M Denison SS

about a 16 minute walk - 1.2 KM away

High

135 Bristol Rd, Newmarket, ON L3Y 8J7, Canada

Our school's goal is to honour the man for whom our school is named, Dr. John M. Denison, and his dream that "this school be a place of joy and wonder that leads our students to be the leaders of our future". We strive to give every student in our care the best possible education in order to prepare them for life beyond our walls. The relationship between home and school is essential in forming a circle of success for our students and we value the opportunities to work together to provide support. Denison provides a broad and differentiated curriculum to meet our students' varied interests and abilities. We encourage our students to achieve their personal best and we take pride in our record of helping students achieve their dreams.

Sacred Heart Catholic HS

2.23 KM away

High

908 Lemar Rd, Newmarket, ON L3Y 1R9, Canada

In the early '50's a Catholic High School called Sacred Heart was operated by the Sisters of Providence. The school was located in King Township and serviced pupils from the northern part of York Region. The York Separate School Board opened the doors of Sacred Heart Junior High School in September 1979, providing 265 students with a Grades 7 to 9 program. A building program was undertaken and beautiful new facilities were made available to students in September 1983. The student population continued to increase and a new addition to the building was opened in May 1987. In 2002 two new additions were added. Another major renovation took place in the summer of 2004. The entire second floor of the western wing received new Science Labs and Art Rooms.
